It now remains for Aribi Bey to be banished and enter the lecture field.

The Arab who invented alcohol died nine hundred years ago, but his spirit still lives.

THERE are 100 saloons in Topeka, Kansas, and they are not interfered with; there are in Leavenworth 117 saloons, likewise open; at Atchison there are seventy saloons, and it is positively asserted that the Kansas liquor law is a dead letter in Wichita, Lawrence and Dodge City.

THE report of Mr. Tilden's serious illness was promptly denied. The denial, however, did not come directly from an "official" source. The fact appears to be that Mr. Tilden's condition is a matter of grave concern to his intimate friends. Though his mind is yet clear, he has scarcely any control of his nerves, and "has resignedly laid down his life-work and put himself in waiting for death."

WE have but one objection to Gov. Blackburn's official career: He clings to that superstitious relic of barbarism of appointing Friday as hangman's day. The same sun shines down and makes each day alike. Days are all made of the same elements, and none but the unthinking can attribute any evil power to one day above another. The acts of a foolish people only make the days differ in good and evil.

Millersburg Items.

Jack Allen returned home from an extended trip through Missouri and Kansas, Saturday.

Polk Forsyth sold at public sale Saturday, the Bryan farm of 156½ acres, lying at Porter's Station, to M. L. Wade, of Clark county, at $55.50 per acre.

Misses Minnie Vimont, Rena Piper, Lizzie Miller, Sissy Miller, Mattie Butler, Katie McClelland, Della McClintock, are all taking in the Maysville fair this week.

Alex McClintock will ship this week, one car load of Short-horns to South America, one car of Jerseys to Nebraska, and one to Iowa. He has contracts for 150 head more to be delivered later.

Dr. Nesbitt, of Louisville, paid John Parnell a professional call Saturday. Owing to our three correspondents at Millersburg not having dropped us a line during the last month, we were unable to get his opinion in the case, or any other news except on the catch-fly plan.

Mrs. Leer and Sammie James sold their farms near Headquarters, to the Arthur brothers, of Mason county, last week. Mrs. Leer gets $87½ per acre for 120 acres, and Sam James $70 for 130 acres. Both parties desire to locate on the pike somewhere in the bluegrass country.

Eld. Geo. Sweeney, "the smartest of the Sweeneys" who was advertised to preach Sunday, failed to come to time, as is his usual custom, and his brother Will took advantage of the occasion and practically demonstrated that he was the smartest of the family, in a powerful sermon from the peculiar words "How to become a Christian."

Jack Turley, a farmer, and widow, aged 85, fell dead from his porch, at his residence near Hooktown, last Friday. It was late in the afternoon when a colored woman found him, and it is supposed that he died immediately after dinner, as he had not been seen since that time. The railing of the balustrade was broken, over which he had fallen.

Five hundred handsome silver-gilt tickets have been put out, inviting attendance to the silver wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McClintock, on Oct. 4th. A large tent from Chicago has been secured, and the largest and most elegant affair ever given in this county, is expected to take place. Stock traders and friends from several states in the Union, will be in attendance.

AROUND THE CIRCLE.

About $60,000 stock in the watch factory has been taken in Lexington.

Gov. Blackburn has appointed Friday, October 13, for William Austin to hang at Lancaster.

Lusk, the prohibition candidate for appellate clerk in this State, received four thousand votes.

Georgetown College has 150 students, a larger attendance than has been present at the opening for years.

The Lexington telegraph operators have formed a union and connected themselves with the Louisville district.

Hopkinsville coal-dealers have each put up $100 forfeit, to be lost by the one who first violates the compact, to sell for cash only.

The postmaster-general has ordered the postoffices at Olympian Springs, Bath county, and Sudduth, Clark county, to be discontinued.

The Kentucky Central was fined five dollars and costs at Lexington, last week, for failing to keep watchmen at the street-crossings.

Mr. Moran and Mr. McCarty quarreled about throwing stones at a cow. Mr. Moran discharged his shotgun towards Mr. McCarty, "just to scare him." The court now in session at Georgetown decided that he scared him $200 worth.

ARABI BEY has surrendered with his army, and the war in Egypt is practically over. A fight of twenty minutes and a grand charge by the British, did the work the other day.

Of the several hundred ex-Confederates in Warren county, not one has been found but what will vote for Gen'l Woolford, the ex-Federal, for congress.

The Most Successful Remedy ever discovered as it is certain in its effects and does not blister. Also: excellent for human flesh. READ PROOF BELOW FROM

COL. L. T. FOSTER.

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, MAY 10TH 1880. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I had a very valuable Hambletonian colt, which I prized very highly; he had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other, which made him very lame; I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons who failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express, I determined at once to try it, and got our druggists here to send for it; they ordered three bottles, I took them all and thought I would give it a thorough trial, and used according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame, and the lumps had disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colts limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles who are now using it. Very Respectfully, L. T. FOSTER.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

ON HUMAN FLESH.

Patten's Mills, N. Y., Feb. 21st 1878. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—The particular case on which I used your Kendall's Spavin Cure was a malignant ankle sprain of sixteen months standing. I had tried many things but in vain. Your spavin cure put the foot to the ground again, and for the first time since hurt in a natural position. For a family liniment it excels anything we ever used.

Yours truly,

Rev. M. P. BELL,

Pastor of M. E. Church, Patten's Mills, N. Y.
